Introducing InfoGuides!

<http://infoguides.gmu.edu/>

InfoGuides are a brilliant new research resource that has been compiled by Mason Subject Librarians to aid students and teachers in their course work. InfoGuides can be found directly from the Mason Libraries Homepage or at the above web address ↑ and include a variety of subjects. Some examples from the 63 available guides are Neuroscience, Recreational Health and Tourism, and News & Current Events. These guides are for research assistance and can contain recommended websites and databases, books, journals, theses and dissertations, maps, and current news on a large variety of subjects. InfoGuides are fully interactive sites that are tagged with common search terms including course numbers. So, jump in and find what InfoGuides can do for you and as always, if you need help, tap into any of Mason's many research and reference services that are available.

The screenshot shows the InfoGuides website interface. At the top, there's a banner with the text "InfoGuides" and "University Libraries Home » InfoGuides Home". Below the banner, it says "Welcome to InfoGuides" and "Research assistance, subject guides, and useful resources compiled by Mason Librarians. We're at your fingertips!". There's a search bar with "Browse All 67 Guides (A-Z)" and "Search:" labels. The main content area is divided into several sections: "Browse by Subjects" with a list of subjects like Conflict Analysis & Resolution, CourseSources, Education, etc.; "Popular Tags" with a list of tags like african_american, american_history, art, etc.; "Libraries@Mason" with "News & Announcements" and "Library Workshops"; "Project Research" with a description and a "Fall for the Book" logo; "Popular Guides | Recent Guides" with a list of popular guides like #1. Bioinformatics, #2. Education, and #3. Geospatial Data & GIS Services; "Receive Email Updates" with a registration link; and "Featured Author".

Library Research & Reference Help

Introduction to Library Research

Not sure how to find and use library information resources? Are you acquainted with the basic elements of the research process of the GMU library system, available electronic resources, and how to organize and evaluate information?

You may arrange an individual appointment by calling Janna Mattson at (703) 993-8348.

EndNote: Managing Your Information

EndNote can help you organize information for both short and long term projects. Learn how to import bibliographic citations from many popular Mason Library databases into your personal EndNote database and insert citations and bibliographies into your research papers.

For support visit <http://library.gmu.edu/endnote/>.

WORK STUDY POSITIONS AVAILABLE AT MERCER LIBRARY - FALL 2008

Student Assistants support library staff in assisting patrons at the circulation desk, shelving, shelf reading, and working on special projects. Student Assistants generally work 10-15 hours per week, depending on work-study award amount, at $7.50/hr. Candidates must be detail oriented, with excellent communication and customer service skills and a strong ability to implement complex library procedures. Experience with word processing and the Internet is required.

PLEASE NOTE: ONLY GMU STUDENTS WITH FEDERAL WORK STUDY AWARDS ARE ELIGIBLE FOR THESE POSITIONS!

To apply, contact Everett Seamans at eseaman1@gmu.edu or 703-993-8362, or inquire at Mercer Library's Circulation Desk (Occoquan Bldg, Room 104)

Mason News -

Have you heard? George Mason University was named the nation's number one university to watch on U.S. News and World Report's new list of "Up-and-Coming Schools" published on Friday, August 22, 2008. Read the article in the Mason Gazette at <http://gazette.gmu.edu/articles/12396/>

Events at Gunston Hall

Archaeology Day

Saturday, October 18 Noon - 4:00 p.m.

It's your day to be an historical archaeologist! Under the tutelage of Gunston Hall's archaeology staff, screen for artifacts, clean and mend found objects, and become acquainted with other basic techniques of the profession. To learn about important discoveries made on site, take the Hunting for George Mason's Garden tour at 1:15 or 3:15 p.m.

Young people under the age of 14 years must be accompanied by an adult. Groups of five or more must make a reservation. Regular admission.

Near and Far Sighted: Refocusing on Regionalism and Imports in Virginia (Part 2) Decorative Arts Symposium

Thursday, November 6 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

What do furnishings reveal about the people who own them? How do patterns in the consumption and production of objects define a region? Symposium speakers will investigate the influence of imported decorative arts objects and printed materials in the Chesapeake region from 1607 to 1850. This program is the second and final part of a series looking at regionalism in the field of material culture.

It is necessary to reserve in advance. Call 703/550-9220 for a brochure and registration form. The fee includes lunch and a symposium packet. $85, $70 Friends of Gunston Hall.

Veterans' Day Commemoration

Tuesday, November 11 9:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Colonel George Mason served as a member of the Virginia militia. How else did Mason further the cause of American freedom and what sacrifices did he and his family make along the way? Mason's Virginia Declaration of Rights, written in May 1776, played a critical role in the story of independence for Virginia and the nation. Consider these topics during mansion tours and conversations with period reenactors.

Regular admission. In honor of Veterans' Day, free admission will be granted to active military personnel and veterans.

Plantation Christmas

Friday and Saturday, December 12 and 13 6:30 - 9:30 p.m.

Experience the hospitality of an 18th-century plantation holiday. Lanterns will line the path that takes you to George Mason's fine home, illuminated inside by candlelight. Ride in a horse-drawn carriage, sip warm cider by the fire, and sample period recipes prepared in the colonial hearth kitchen. Costumed characters engaged in seasonal activities will greet you in the house and throughout the grounds.

$14 for adults, $7 for ages 6-18, free for children under age six. Reservations are not required.

Plantation Christmas Yuletide Dinner

Friday December 12 6:30 and 8:00 p.m.

Saturday, December 13 4:30, 6:00 and 8:00 p.m.

While enjoying Plantation Christmas, indulge in delicious traditional fare. Reservations are necessary for the full complement of courses served in an elegant candlelit setting. Private parties may reserve a table for ten.

$39.95 for adults and ages 11 and older, $19.95 for ages 6 - ten. The cost of the meal includes admission to Plantation Christmas. Please telephone 703/550-9220 for reservations.

Gunston Hall Plantation | 10709 Gunston Road | Mason Neck, Va. 22079 | Phone: 703.550.9220 | Fax: 703.550.9480 | Email: historic@gunstonhall.org

Open every day except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day. Public hours: 9:30 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
