

“TextSelect” by Barnes and Noble College Endowment for the Libraries

Established in 2015 by Barnes and Noble College. This purpose of this fund is to provide seed money to endow the TextSelect initiative, which is a project of the University Libraries aimed at addressing the growing cost of required textbooks for university courses. The program allows students to check out required course textbooks for a limited, time-constrained basis.