Please Pardon Our Dust!

During the months of April and May Mercer Library staff, along with the Prince William Campus Administration will prepare for a retrofit in the library. Upon completion, Mercer will be able to offer additional shelving units to accommodate the growing collections. Construction may be noisy at times, however staff are happy to accommodate patrons as needed. We look forward to serving you throughout the process!

Meet Serials Coordinator, Ava Koohbor!

◁va Koohbor joined the Mercer Library team as the Serials Coordinator on February 25th. Ava excelled as a Student Assistant at Mercer Library, and is currently working on a Master's degree in the Health Sciences. Please drop by and introduce yourself as Ava settles into her new full-time position!

LIBRARY RESEARCH WORKSHOPS

Introduction to Library Research

Not sure how to find and use library information resources? Schedule a drop-in appointment to get acquainted with the basic elements of the research process and be introduced to the GMU library system, available electronic resources, and how to organize and evaluate information.

Sessions are held in the Mercer (Prince William Campus) Library, Occoquan (PWI) Bldg. Rm. 104J. Please call (703) 993-8348 to arrange an individual appointment.

The schedule of library training and EndNote bibliographic management software training classes offered on the Fairfax campus during the Spring '05 semester is available at <http://library.gmu.edu/research/classes.html>.

DATABASE SPOTLIGHT

Reference Universe

Reference Universe is a databank of article titles, electronic headwords and complete back-of-the-book indexes to the core reference materials and specialized subject encyclopedias that make up a large part of your library's reference collection. Reference Universe helps you find the right article to begin your research, whether it's right on your shelves in a printed reference work or in an online reference product. Title(s) and page number(s) of reference book(s) that contain your search term are returned in a list.

Criminal Justice Periodicals Index

An essential resource for both students and professionals in any criminal justice field, the ProQuest Criminal Justice Periodical Index (CJPI) is the most comprehensive database of its kind.

Subject area: Social sciences, education, and humanities

Formats: Abstracts and indexing, full text, full image, Text + Graphics

Media: Electronic

Overall dates of coverage: 1981-present

Total titles covered: 190

CJPI can provide information on virtually any criminal justice topic including corrections administration, law enforcement, social work, industrial security, drug rehabilitation, and criminal and family law.

The database offers ASCII text, image, and Text + Graphics coverage for about 50 of the titles most frequently accessed by criminal justice researchers. CJPI also include complete indexing and abstracts for another 140 relevant U.S. and international journals.

Sample sources include American Journal of Criminal Justice, FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin, International Journal of Offender Therapy & Comparative Criminology, Journal of Forensic Sciences, and Women Police.
