

Find DVDs and VHS

1

Open a web browser to library.gmu.edu. Use the search box to begin searching your keyword(s).

2

In the panel located on the left of the page, click open the list titled "Resource Type". Click on the option for "videos" and then on "apply filters".

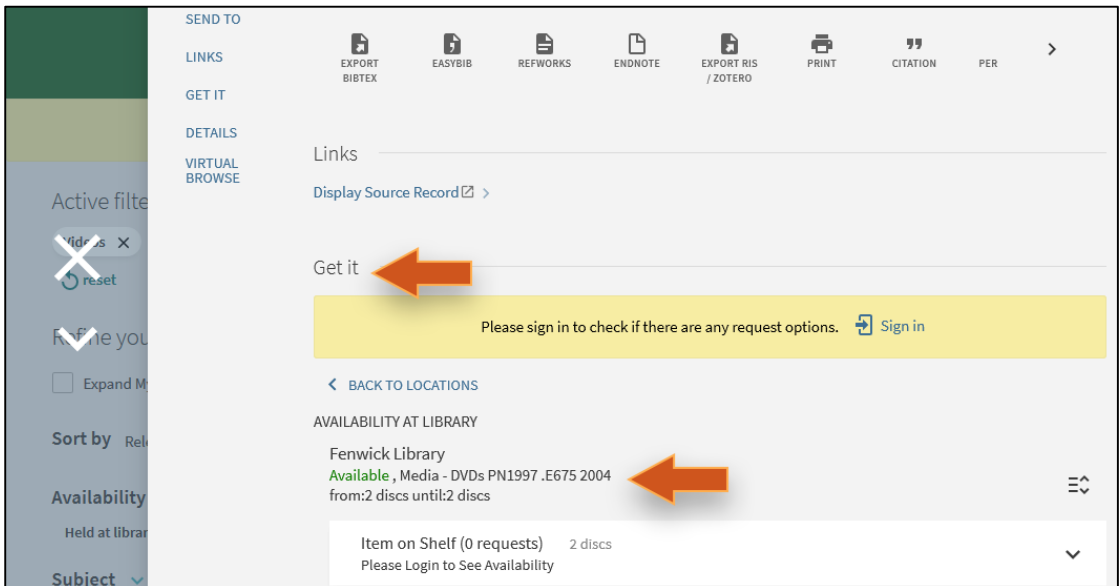

3

You should now only see results that match your keyword(s) and are videos. Click on an item to get more information.

4

Under “Get it” you should see the item’s availability and call number, which is where it is located. Most films and videos are located in Fenwick 1B.
